Zoo Camp 2009

Counselor-in-Training Program

The Counselor-in-Training (CIT) program is designed as a volunteer program for students entering seventh through twelfth grade. The role of a CIT is to assist counselors with groups of Zoo Campers. CITs will be an extra set of eyes, ears, and hands to help with crafts, games and other activities. CITs are expected to show a positive attitude towards camp, the campers, the staff and the St. Augustine Alligator Farm Zoological Park. CITs are held to the same rules and regulations as campers; since CITs are role models for younger campers anyone showing a lack of maturity, cooperation, or positive attitude will be asked to leave. After camp has ended for the season each CIT will receive a letter outlining the number of hours volunteered. Any additional paperwork required by schools in order to receive volunteer credit they must be completed by the CIT and then submitted to the Curator of Education for a signature.

The fee for the CIT program is $18 for the first camp session and $7 for additional camp sessions which covers the camp t-shirt, snacks and other associated costs. One camp shirt will be given to each CIT and is to be worn daily. Additional t-shirts may be purchased for $11 each. A camp session runs either from 8 am to Noon or Noon to 4 pm. CITs volunteering for both AM and PM session in the same week must bring a bag lunch.
